

Resources

Any materials that humans use can be considered a resource. These resources can be made into different products.

A resource is any natural or human-made material that can be used for satisfying human needs.

MAYA
Grade 7 | Peyton