

Barter is to trade goods and services without using money. A shortcoming of barter is that for it to work there must exist a double coincidence of wants. Each party must have what the other party wants. Using money as a medium of exchange helps overcome that problem.

SUNIA
Grade 6 | Colorado Springs